New Mexico Association for the Gifted (NMAG)

Dedicated to ensuring an appropriate, quality education for all students in New Mexico, with emphasis on the unique learning and emotional needs of the gifted

NMAG

www.nmgifted.org

NMAG is a non-profit organization of educators and parents who advocate for gifted education in New Mexico, emphasizing and encouraging the unique social, emotional and intellectual needs of gifted students throughout the state.

The National Association for Gifted Children (NAGC) is pleased to offer all parent members of NMAG an affiliate membership in NAGC for an additional $10. This membership includes 4 issues of Parenting for High Potential magazine, and access to all resources on NAGC's website: <http://nagc.org>. For an application for the joint parent association membership, contact NMAG at nmgifted@gmail.com.

NMAG sponsors a summer institute on gifted education with national keynote speakers and sessions on topics such as teaching strategies, parenting, meeting social and emotional needs and distance learning opportunities. For information, click on Summer Institute at <http://nmgifted.org>

Vision

We envision a time when all students in New Mexico are given an appropriate educational experience that matches their abilities and potentials, where there is ample opportunity for their intellectual challenge and growth, and where those who are responsible for their education are adequately trained to appreciate, understand, and nurture their unique talents and needs.

Mission

- Promote an understanding of gifted students and their educational, social, and emotional needs among educators, administrators, parents, and other members of the community, and to provide a supportive learning community for every gifted student.
- Communicate information about the most recent issues, best practices and research findings in the field of gifted education.
- Advocate and provide leadership for policies that promote supportive legislation and funding for the gifted at the state level.
- Disseminate information on the educational, social and emotional needs of the gifted to anyone who is interested.

Your membership allows NMAG to provide:

- Advocacy for the unique educational and emotional needs of gifted students
- Conferences and workshops for parents and educators
- Information on the education and needs of gifted students
- Internet resources

Everyone who serves NMAG is a volunteer. When you join, please consider volunteering your time, help and/or expertise.

WE NEED YOUR HELP TO FULLY BENEFIT OUR CHILDREN.
